GREEKS ARE DEFIANT

An Answer to the Powers Already Prepared.

WILL NOT WITHDRAW TROOPS.

She Prefers War Rather Than Recall Her Troops From That Island—The Intervention Communication Not Yet Received at Athens—Turkey Favors Mediation—No Serious Fighting Reported.

ATHENS, May 8.—The intervention communications from the powers have not yet been received. It is said positively that if the powers insist on the withdrawal of the Greek troops from Crete as a condition of mediation, Greece will reply that she prefers war even to extermination.

The Greek government has notified the powers the Greek fleet has established an effective blockade of the coast of Epirus.

General Smolenski's troops have reached Almyros. One regiment remained at Velestino to cover the retreat. The Turks, perceiving the Greek movement, made an attack in force; but the regiment fought until late in the evening and succeeded in reaching Almyros about two hours after the main body. The Greek loss is estimated at 300.

Two squadrons of dismounted cavalry and one field battery have retreated to Volo, whence they will be transported to Almyros.

Colonel Manos wires from Arta that the Turks have begun a wholesale massacre of the inhabitants in the interior of Epirus. Almost all the inhabitants of the village of Kanvarina have been murdered, a few only escaping to the mountains. From other parts women are arriving at Arta in the most miserable condition, begging protection for their husbands and children who are being murdered by the enraged Turkish troops. Many of these poor creatures have gone mad. Some are unable to articulate a single word, others relate unspeakable atrocities.

The blockade of the coast of Epirus will begin today. Both Greek squadrons have been ordered there for that purpose.

The Greek fleet at Volo has been instructed not to hinder the entrance of the Turks, in order to save the town from destruction.

Crowds of volunteers continue to arrive here, and 2,000 Italians, led by Ricotti Garibaldi, left last night for the frontier.

The government has decided to recall 25 officers and two companies of Sappers from Crete.

SITUATION SIZED UP.

The Greeks Are Not Now in Well Fortified Positions.

LONDON, May 8.—The news from the seat of war is still somewhat confusing as to the exact positions of the Greeks; but it appears certain that General Smolenski at Almyros and Domokos is not in a geographically strong position.

The Turks have full control of the road leading from Thessaly to the valley of Sperchios and Lamia by the Mochluka pass, while no obstacle exists to prevent them from advancing by Turk a pass and cutting off all communications with Domokos and Lamia.

At no point during the retreat of the Greeks from Pharsalos on Wednesday was there any thing like a rout, although the ranks were mowed by Turkish shrapnel.

The Turkish lines advance quietly and irresistably, the gaps closing up instantly, as if the men were not only indifferent but actually unconscious of the fire.

The Greek wounded who were found at Pharsalos said that the Greeks hardly made a pause after entering the town, the retreat beginning almost immediately. They left behind them great quantities of army biscuits, 2,800 shells, a large store of musketry and ammunition, but they took their field guns.

The Greek loss is estimated at 250. The streets of Pharsalos are now full of Turkish soldiery chatting gaily and drinking eagerly at the wells. All the adjoining villages are deserted except by old men, who have taken refuge in the churches.

TURKEY FAVORS MEDIATION.

Latest News of the Warfare Received at Constantinople.

CONSTANTINOPLE, May 8.—The proposed mediation of the powers between Turkey and Greece is viewed with favor by the Turkish government.

The authorities of Erzeroum have been ordered to hold 11 regiments of the famous Hanidish cavalry in readiness in case they are wanted for services in Thessaly.

A battalion of Redifs has been sent to the island of Mytiline as a precaution against a possible landing of the Greeks there.

The Turkish government has received the following official dispatch from Pharsalos: "At dawn the imperial troops having attacked the enemy occupying Pharsalos, from which place a portion of the Greek troops had already begun to retreat during the night. A division of the cavalry pursued the enemy on the road to Domokos, and the division of Khairi Pasha has been ordered to advance in that direction. The Greeks left ammunition and provisions at Pharsalos."

Turks Will Soon Possess Volo.

VELESTINO, May 8.—The Turkish forces have reached the outskirts of Volo. As yet there is no confirmation of the rumors that the town has already fallen; but in any case its capture is only an affair of a few hours, as the defenses on the land side are very feeble.

A portion of the Greek forces has retreated by the coast road to Almyros, from which point it will probably be conveyed by sea to Lamia, and rejoin the rest of the army at Domokos.

Turks Shell a Train.

LAMIA, May 8.—On the Greeks withdrawing from Velestino, a Turkish battery, which had advanced unobserved from the further side of the railway, suddenly shelled a train conveying the wounded and another which had just arrived from Volo. Five shells fell exceedingly close before the train with the wounded started. The spectators and the volunteers on the platform stamped.

Greeks Withdrawn From Epirus.

LONDON, May 8.—A dispatch to The Daily Chronicle from Patras says that the Greeks have now withdrawn from Epirus, the last having crossed the bridge into Arta on Monday. Arta is being put in a state of defense, and the Turks are awaiting the arrival of artillery before assaulting it.

Cabinet Crisis in Greece.

LONDON, May 8.—The Athens correspondent of The Daily News says: "It is persistently rumored that a cabinet crisis is impending. M. Ralli and his colleagues advocate energetic preparations to continue the struggle, while the king desires to avoid further bloodshed."

Germany's Demands.

LONDON, May 8.—It is stated here that Germany still clings the negotiations for mediation by the powers by insisting upon the evacuation of Crete and the unconditional acceptance by Greece of such terms as the powers approve.

Greeks Beaten Back.

PHARALOS, May 8.—An engagement began yesterday near Velestino and lasted several hours, the Greeks being finally beaten back. They have retreated upon Volo, sharply pursued by the Turks.

Colonel Vassos Starts For Greece.

COLOGNE, May 8.—A dispatch to The Kolnische Zeitung from Canea says that Colonel Vassos and five of his officers have embarked on an Italian torpedo boat for Greece.

Volo Asks Protection.

VOLO, May 8.—The consuls have decided to ask the foreign warships to land detachments and have promised to protect the town.

Edhem Pasha Ordered Onward.

CONSTANTINOPLE, May 8.—Orders have been telegraphed to Edhem Pasha to push on to Domokos immediately.

RAVE BOY.

JOHNNY THOMAS STICKS TO HIS POST AMID BLAZING BOXES OF DYNAMITE.

HOUGHTON, Mich., May 8.—With a box containing 200 pounds of dynamite on fire 10 feet away from him, John Thomas, a boy who runs a compressed air hoisting engine in the Tamarack mine, stuck to his post and saved the lives of the men at work in the mine by his wonderful bravery. Ten seconds after Thomas had hoisted the men to the level the dynamite exploded, smashing the engine to pieces and doing other damage, but the men and the boy to whom they owe their lives were in places of safety.

The miners working in the 23d level had put seven cases of dynamite in a box for future use. At noon a miner, accompanied by Thomas, went to the box and found it on fire. Thomas went to his post, gave the alarm to the miners in the level below and ran his engine until he had hoisted them out. He then fled. The alarm of fire caused great excitement, but no miners were injured in the rush to reach daylight.

ONLY ONE SIDE GIVEN.

SOME MORE CENSORSHIP DISPATCHES SENT OUT FROM HAVANA.

HAVANA, May 8.—Captain General Weyler arrived yesterday at Manicaragua, province of Santa Clara, from San Juan de Las Yeras, having left the latter place Thursday by special train with a small escort.

General Surace Ynclan, receiving information saying that a quantity of ammunition which had been landed by a filibustering expedition on March 17 last had been hidden in the vicinity of Honda and the river Mosquito, acting in conjunction with the Spanish gunboat Reina Cristina, has seized 194 cases of ammunition, which were hidden at low water, besides 48 cases of ammunition which had been concealed in the neighboring marshes. A total of 20,000 Mauser cartridges and 106,000 Remington cartridges fell into the hands of the Spaniards.

A dispatch from Matanzas announces the surrender there of 21 insurgents.

RUN DOWN ON A TREESTEEL.

ORLEANS, Ind., May 8.—An old man, giving Hutchason as his name, was run over and killed by a train on the Orleans branch of the Monon yesterday, at Lost river, four miles south of this city. Both legs were cut off above the knees. He was about 80 years old. He was crawling on the trestle, and was mistaken by the engineer for a hog until too near to stop the engine. He is supposed to have been demented. His remains were taken to Indianapolis for burial.

Plot to Poison an Entire Family Believed to Be in Existence.

HUNTSVILLE, Ala., May 8.—There is a profound mystery at Jeff, a small country town near here. Two months ago Joshua O. Kelly, a prominent farmer and nursery man, several members of his family and a number of tenants were poisoned.

VERY ENCOURAGING.

R. G. DUN & COMPANY REPORT BUSINESS AS BOOMING.

TRANSACTIONS DURING APRIL.

They Have Been Nearly Up to That of 1892 and Has Been in the Legitimate Trade, While the Speculative Transactions Have Been Small Reports From the Various Trade Centers.

NEW YORK, May 8.—R. G. Dun & Company's weekly review of trade says: Nearly all will be astonished to learn the actual sales in April by leading houses in each line of business in the principal cities east of the Rocky mountains average only about 10 per cent less than in April, 1892, the year of the largest business hitherto, and were 6.1 per cent more than in the same month last year. Yet this is the summary of 357 reports, each covering actual sales of leading merchants in a line of business in one of 14 cities. They are especially encouraging in view of the great fall of prices within the five years, and with exceptional floods and other retarding influences this year.

While speculative business in nearly all lines is small, and does not swell clearinghouse returns, as in previous years, the volume of legitimate trade shows no corresponding decrease and the fact is one of the highest importance in all business calculations.

Moreover returns of failures for April by all branches of business, given only by the mercantile agency, show decrease in number, amount and average of liabilities in almost every branch of trade and in nearly all branches of manufacture except cotton, although failure of five New Bedford mills for $7,990,743 make the total defaulted liabilities for the month 40 per cent larger than last year, 60 per cent larger than in 1892 and 32 per cent larger than 1894. The value of reports tracing failures to particular lines of business is impressively illustrated.

Crop prospects are a little better for cotton because of the passing off of floods and the increase of acreage elsewhere, and for spring wheat because the customary accounts of injury to winter wheat begin to appear and stimulate larger sowing of spring wheat as usual. Western receipts continue larger than last year, 2,348,605 bushels against 2,208,972, and Atlantic exports also increase, amounting to 1,498,167 bushels, four included, against 1,040,167 last year. The week's exports of corn, 2,725,043 bushels, are smaller than in other recent weeks. The wheat market declined 2 cents until Tuesday and then rose 1 1/2 cents. Liverpool speculations lifted cotton to 7.75 cents, but it has lost a sixteenth, and the consumption in manufacture does not appear to be increasing.

The demand for cotton goods has not met expectations, and neither the prolonged curtailment of production by many mills, the large distribution of goods since November, nor the great auction sale has yet sufficed to reduce the surplus of goods. Print cloths are again lower at 2.44 cents, the lowest point ever reached in previous years, and though some kinds of goods have found sufficient demand to advance prices a little, the expectation of better prices and larger consumption in future still seems to push the mills to exceed present wants.

The same is true of wool manufacture in many branches, for orders and sales thus far do not call for as large production as appears, though it is yet much below the maximum, but the increasing demand has been encouraging. Sales of wool at prices firm but no longer rising fall much below recent records, indicating that speculators are growing less sure of early profits in view of enormous supplies on hand. At the three chief markets they were 8,025,200 pounds, of which 5,744,600 were foreign, and in five weeks the sales have been 49,737,850 pounds, against 23,327,100 in the same week of 1892, when the mills were all employed.

The anticipation of better prices and great increase in demand pushed production so far in iron and steel manufacture that four furnaces in eastern Pennsylvania, and others in the Pittsburgh region and Ohio, have stopped. Bessmer pig at Pittsburg has declined to $0.40 and grey forge to $8.40, pressure to sell billets lowers them to $14, tank steel plates have sold below 1 cent, and common bars at 90 cents per 100 pounds with black sheets in light demand at $1.80 for No. 27. Yet the structural works are well employed on old orders with others coming in, one of 20,000 tons for the Montreal bridge and others at the east and at Chicago. The rail works are all busy on orders taken months ago, though there are 20,000 tons to revive the pool. One contract for 10,000 tons steel plates is reported and some of the tinplate works are sold out for the year.

The visible supply of tin has increased 3,000 tons in April and the price is a shade lower, at 13.25 cents.

The heavy sales of lake copper are believed to cover some large consumers for most of the year.

Failures for the past week have been 221 in the United States against 238 last year, and 36 in Canada, against 24 last year.

COUNTRY TOWN SENSATION.

Plot to Poison an Entire Family Believed to Be in Existence.

HUNTSVILLE, Ala., May 8.—There is a profound mystery at Jeff, a small country town near here. Two months ago Joshua O. Kelly, a prominent farmer and nursery man, several members of his family and a number of tenants were poisoned.

The rebels are receiving the aid of a small faction of liberals, who are discontented with prevailing conditions.

have been the result of Mrs. Kelly carelessly placing poison in a cupboard. Kelly died in intense agony. A party of 11 sitting up with his body were poisoned the night after Kelly died.

It now begins to appear that there is a plot to poison the family. After breakfast yesterday morning every one who had eaten became violently ill. Eight negroes and six whites were seriously affected and two may die. Among the ill is a drummer from Cleveland, Tenn., who spent the night at Kelly's.

FOUR PEOPLE SHOT DOWN.

Two of Them Killed Outright and Two Fatally Injured.

MILWAUKEE, May 8.—A double tragedy and what may yet prove a quadruple murder, occurred at the farm home of Alexander Harris, who resided about five miles south of Waukesha, at an early hour yesterday morning, the victims being Mr. Harris, his wife, hired girl and hired man. The crime was committed by a farmhand named William Pouch, who had been sheltered by the family over night. The dead and wounded are:

Alexander Harris, aged 45, killed outright.

Mrs. Harris, aged 44, killed. Helen Vesbach, the hired girl, fatally wounded.

No son McHolt, the hired man, probably fatally wounded.

Early Thursday evening Pouch, who had worked for Mr. Harris about two years ago, called at the house and requested lodgings over night. He was taken in, ate supper and was assigned a room. About 5 o'clock yesterday morning Mr. Harris and the hired man arose and went to the yard to milk the cows. Mrs. Harris and the hired girl remaining to prepare breakfast for the family.

Pouch left his room quietly and going to the yard where the men were milking the cows, bade them good morning. Harris and the hired man were sitting on stools near each other, and before they were aware of an evil-doing Pouch drew a revolver and fired at the farmer, killing him almost instantly. The murderer then turned the weapon on the hired man and shot him in the body, inflicting a probably fatal wound. The man fell motionless on the ground and Pouch evidently supposed him dead.

The terrible sight did not unnerve the murderer, for he left his victims where they fell and walked leisurely to the kitchen of the farmhouse. There he met Mrs. Harris and the hired girl and chatted pleasantly with them. He said Mr. Harris would not be in for a few minutes, and that he would partake of his breakfast at once. The woman waited upon the murderer, who seemed to relish the meal.

After concluding his breakfast, Pouch arose from the table and started to walk toward the door, but suddenly wheeled around, and, before the women realized what was about to happen, he shot Mrs. Harris in the breast and then fired at the hired girl. The farmer's wife fell to the floor with a fatal wound, and expired soon afterward.

After finishing his bloody work the murderer mounted a bicycle and rode away. He started in a southwesterly direction over the Mukwonago road, and the supposition is that he is headed for Burlington. A posse of farmers is in hot pursuit, and the chances are that he will be captured. They openly vow that they will lynch him.

The supposition of the authorities is that the man is either insane or that he committed the terrible deed in order to hide evidence of another crime. The manner in which the murders were committed show plainly that he had been deliberate in arranging his plans, and had carried them out to the letter.

Mr. Harris was one of the best-known farmers in the county, and was quite well-to-do. Pouch had worked for him some time during the summer of 1895, and nothing occurred so far as known to cause enmity between them. He is described as about 5 feet high, 20 years of age, wears a mustache and has blue eyes.

It has been discovered that after shooting his victims, Pouch went upstairs and robbed the house.

A HOLY WAR.

THE LATEST PHASE OF THE PRESENT UPRISING IN ECUADOR.

NEW YORK, May 8.—A special to The Herald from Panama, Colombia, says: The revolution in Ecuador, according to all advices received, seems to be in the nature of a holy war. Among the leaders of the rebels are many priests. The uprising, which started in the provinces of Cañar and Chimborazo, while not as serious as was thought at first, is still causing some apprehension. There has been no considerable movement so far as known in the other provinces in the same direction, but the trouble continues in the two provinces named.

In the attack on the city of Riobamba, a few days since, the rebels met with heavy reverses. A Jesuit superior, who was with the rebels, was killed and two of the principal leaders of the rebels, Chiroboga and Cost

THE hungry Kentucky Republicans are making life miserable for Senator Deboe.
A special says:

The crowds at the hotels are large, and poor Senator Deboe has the sympathy of every one, for he is not even allowed to hardly enjoy his meals.

So FAR as reported, the Democratic primary election is passing off quietly.
The wise ones among the politicians seem to be all at sea, and but few predictions are made as to the result. Several of the contests are regarded as very close. The polls close at 4 p. m., and the result ought to be known by 7 o'clock.

The tariff bill, as it came from the Senate sub-committee, does not seem to suit anybody but the Sugar and Lead Trusts. Mr. Carlisle is not charged now with writing the sugar schedule, as he was in 1894. Perhaps Mr. Gage wrote it this time, but the most reasonable supposition is that the schedule was prepared by the Sugar Trust and sent to the committee. The amount of money contributed by the Sugar Trust for the election of Mc-Kinley was said to be enormous. That must be paid back. The representatives of the domestic leaf tobacco growers are amazed at the tobacco schedule, the Eastern and New England people are howling over the hide tax, and the big brewers of malt liquors are as mad as hornets over the increased beer tax.
Take it altogether, angry and loud talk is heard around the Republican camp at the Capitol, and there is fun ahead for the tariff tinkers.—Washington Special.

Don't hold your breath until the Republicans pass their tariff bill. They were going to rush it through, but just wait and we'll see what they mean by rushing things.

"YEOW! WOW!"

A Report That Senator Rummans is To Be
Our Next Postmaster Starts a Big Racket.

The Louisville Dispatch published a statement yesterday or the day before that Senator J. D. Rummans is to be Maysville's next postmaster, and maybe it didn't cause a big stir in the ranks of the g. o. p.

The matter was the sensation of the day, and there was some talk of holding an indignation meeting and forwarding a protest to the powers at Washington City.

Whether the report is true or not, Senator Rummans is in a position to claim most any good thing he wants at the hands of Senator Deboe. He is one of the five who fought Dr. Hunter out of the Senatorial contest, and then made Dr. Deboe's calling and election sure by voting for him at the critical moment.

Senator Rummans' appointment as postmaster would be a bitter dose to the mass of the Republicans of Maysville, for various reasons not necessary to mention.

Future developments will be anxiously awaited.

The Lewis and Mason Pike a Free Road.

The Lewis and Mason turnpike is now
a free road.

The city having surrendered her stock,
the Turnpike Commissioners yesterday paid the price previously agreed on for the purchase of the road, and no toll is now being charged.

This is one of the most important pikes
leading into Maysville.

The tollgate raiders tore down the gate
on the Owingsville & Salt Lick pike, near the latter place Thursday night and left a notice with the keeper and also one with the President of the pike that if they replaced the gate or attempted to collect
any more toll, that the raiders would blow up the tollgate house and also the private dwelling of the President of the pike.
The people in Bath County are greatly agitated. Judge Gudell will have the gate replaced with all the officers that have been torn down.

CRUEL PUNISHMENT

Inflicted On Rebellious Convicts at the Frankfort Pen- itentiary.

Startling Charges Made Regarding the Chair Contract—The Investigating Committee at Work.

FRANKFORT, KY., May 6.—The Republicans on the Penitentiary Investigating Committee again broke a quorum to-day.
Messrs. Hays, Goebel and Bronston decided to go ahead themselves and hear testimony. They only called two witnesses, but heard some of the most sensational testimony every told in Kentucky about inhuman treatment of prisoners, brutality of officers and other things not dreamed of when the commission began its work.

This testimony is almost too revolting to be believed. John Doe, a two-year convict, from Covington, was released yesterday. He is a man of intelligence, whatever may have been his moral status
before he became a prisoner. He testified that he never had been punished himself, had never been mistreated in any way, and had no motive in making his alleged expose except in the interest of humanity and the hundreds of convicts
who were afraid to tell the story themselves. He told of dozens of cases of the brutal flogging of men, women and children, of the rack, thumb, stall, dungeon, suffocation, &c., giving names, dates and every detail. During his testimony Doe said:

"The system of strapping as a punishment has been reinstated since the present Warden has had charge. Twenty-five or thirty men are strapped every week for trivial offenses. The strap is wielded by a big strong convict, and it draws blood every lick. The marks show for a month after the strapping. One of the twelve-year-old boy convicts was strapped this way until the blood ran
from his back."

One of the negro female convicts, who was enciente, was tied up by her thumbs
for several hours and died from the effects. Another negro woman named Fanny Harvey, from Covington, was severely strapped. Wm. Trusty, of Walling and Jackson fame, was tied up by the wrists for several hours, and while in that position had a fit and broke his arm
during the convulsions.

"George Manly had both hands tied behind him and one foot raised up and chained to his hands and compelled to stand on one foot in this position all night. I was never punished myself, but was allowed six months off my two years' sentence for good behavior. I simply tell these things in the interest of the other prisoners who are frequently beaten and never have a chance to display any charge a guard or any other official brings against them."

Herman Albin, of Louisville, testified that Attorney General Tayler, who is an ex-officio member of the Sinking Fund Commission which awarded the contract
last year to Martin & Co., of Chicago,
for the output of the prison chair factory,
is now the attorney for Martin & Co.,
and has appeared in open court in his clients' behalf. He said further that the price at which Martin & Co. received the chairs from the State was actually less than the cost of materials used to make the chairs.

Mr. Albin declared that the State is paying Martin bonus to take the chairs
at prices that are driving all free labor chair-makers out of the business, that the Louisville Chair Company was forced to quit business and throw several hundred men out of employment because of the ruinously low prices for which Martin
could sell chairs; that all other chair
factories in Kentucky had to quit manufacturing chairs of the same grade that Martin sold, and had to cut down the number of their employees nearly one half.

Albin further stated that his company
had presented a bid at the time the contract was let to Martin which proposed to take at least $180,000 worth of chairs
each year, to pay all the expenses of guarding, clothing and feeding the convicts employed in making the chairs,
and, in addition to this, to pay the State 10 per cent. profit on the $180,000 worth of chairs for the first year and 12½ per cent. each year thereafter during the continuance of the contract, yet this bid was turned down for one by which the taxes could have been made. The conference report was adopted without opposition, and will likely be adopted by
the Senate.

Albin said that after Martin secured
the contract he assigned or sold it to the Frankfort Chair Company, an Ohio corporation, and that Martin's chief bondsmen
was the Chairman of the Republican State Committee of Connecticut, showing that politics cut some figure in the awarding of the contract.

R. H. Suter and the other lumber dealers for whom the warrants were issued some days ago waived an examining trial to-day, and were held over to the September term of Circuit Court, giving bond for their appearance.

THE SCRAMBLE FOR "PIE"

Leaves Only Four Republican Senators at Their Post of Duty at Frankfort.

Doings of the Legislature.

FRANKFORT, KY., May 6.—There were just eighteen Senators present when the Senate was called to order this morning, being two less than a quorum. Of this number fourteen were Democrats and four Republicans. The other Republicans have deserted their posts to hunt
pie in Washington.

There was some routine work that could be done without a quorum, so an adjournment was not had at once.

Senator Goebel offered a new bill relating to election laws, as follows:

That whenever the County Judge of any county shall be a candidate for any office to be voted for in said county, all duties which by law he is required to discharge pertaining to the election in the year of his candidacy shall devolve upon and be performed by the Sheriff of the county, unless he is also a candidate for any office, in which event the County Clerk shall discharge the said duties, unless he also is a like candidate for any office, in which event the Circuit Judge shall name one of the Magistrates of the county who is not a candidate for office in the same year, or if none, there be appointed some good citizen who is not such candidate.

Mr. Stephenson presented a new bill,
which was at once dubbed the "Fusion
bill," which proposes to amend the election law so that when a candidate has been nominated for any office by the conventions of two or more parties his name shall be printed on the ballot under the device of each party so nominating him.

In the House Mr. Stoll's bill to take from the Governor and give to the Asylum Commissioners of each asylum
the power to appoint all the asylum officers and employees, was passed. It puts the salary of Superintendents at $1,- 800; First Assistant Physician, $1,100;
Second Assistant, $900; Third Assistant,
$750; Steward, $1,100; Treasurer, $500;
Receiver, $500.

The Phelps bill to prevent the spread of the San Jose scale among fruit trees was passed. The bill provides that the Professor of Entomology at the State College shall be the State Entomologist, whose duty shall be to examine all nurseries and orchards and expend not exceeding $400 per year in exterminating the evil.

The bill to amend the election law so that the polls should open at 6 o'clock
instead of 7 o'clock was discussed for over an hour. A amendment making the amendment apply only to cities of the second class was lost, and finally the bill went into the orders of the day because
a quorum failed to vote on it.

Mr. Thorne, from the Conference Committee, appointed to consider his bill reducing Sheriff's fees for selling real estate for taxes from $2 to 75 cents. The committee agreed on a compromise, fixing the fee at $1.50, but requiring the Sheriff to make affidavit that there was no personal property out of which the taxes could have been made. The conference report was adopted without opposition, and will likely be adopted by
the Senate.

it's good Lonsdale. They are 36x42 and 36x45, have generous hems, are neatly stitched. Wear your mantle of criticism, put on your spectacles and come prove every word we say.

Johns Called the Acting Speaker of the Kentucky House an Ass.

FRANKFORT, Ky., May 7.—Representative John Johns clamored for recognition in the House this morning on a motion to adjourn. Acting Speaker Lieberth rapped him out of order. Johns persisted there was a second to his motion.

Lieberth continued to direct the clerk to read the bill. Johns stood five minutes demanding recognition on his constitutional right. He finally shouted: "If I am to be deprived of my right by an ass in the Speaker's chair I will sit down." Lieberth paid no attention to him.

The Coming Road Race Between Maysville and Flemingsburg—Notes and News of Interest to Local Wheelmen.

The "unknown" is bothering Cox. The road race is for Maysville riders only.

McCarthy is not so slow; or Diener either.

Portsmouth has more bicyclists than any other city along the Ohio.

Mr. James Hall is getting the Victor shaped up for his first spring ride.

When you see Orlando Cox on his Victor road racer you see a good combination.

Who can pick the winner in the road race? All the riders are good ones and there are no odds on any of them.

Slack says Gabby will make it hot for the winner. Another good man says that he will have to make it hot for Williams.

Those so far expected to make the race are Cox, Willett, Williams, Diener, Browning, Slack, Gabby and McCarthy.

The electric roads of New York have made preparations for carrying bicycles by fitting out several cars with cycle racks.

No mechanism pays better interest on careful usage than the bicycle and none is quicker to be injured by carelessness, neglect or abuse.

An effort is being made to establish a bicycle club and resort on the Fleming pike. Let's get together and all pull for the same good thing.

A well posted man, who knows the rider, says he will be surprised if they beat Willett. Captain Kackley says it is impossible for him to pick the winner. He will go to Flemingsburg to see the finish, which he thinks will be hot.

J. T. Kackley & Co. will give a searchlight to the winner in the road race and a fine silk sweater to the second man. The race will probably start from Fourth and Market in order to have a straight run, and finish at the large barn this end of Flemingsburg.

Now is the time for riding. Remember we have had a long wait for good weather.

WONDERS

Being Wrought by Patience and Skill on a Patient at the Good Samaritan Hospital, Cincinnati, Ohio.

[Enquirer.]

Patience and skill are accomplishing a miracle in the case of Alvin Burns, who is a patient at the Good Samaritan Hospital, with both legs almost crushed to a pulp. The accident attended by this deplorable result occurred about two weeks ago near Grayson, Ky. Burns was then a conductor on a C. and O. train. When he was brought to the hospital it seemed self-evident that both legs would have to be amputated. It was found upon careful examination that both the fibia and tibia of the right leg were broken in four places, and that the left foot was completely crushed.

Burns, is of powerful physique, only twenty-nine years old, and in this lay the hope of the physician in attendance that he might save the man from an amputation. Preliminary to the work of removing the splintered bone the patient received a bi-chloride bath, after which the injured limbs were wrapped in sterilized gauze and placed in splints. After a certain time these were removed and since then, day after day, particles of splintered bone have been taken away. The process is tedious, but painless to the patient under an anesthetic, requiring great skill and caution to attain the desired result.

It will require many more operations of this character before all the dead and splintered bone is removed, but when this is accomplished it is expected that nature will supply new bone and a complete recovery will be effected.

Mr. Burns is a member of Maysville Commandery No. 10, K. T.

MURDERED A FELLOW-CO-VICT.

Henry Jones Hanged in the Penitentiary at Michigan City, Ind.

LAPORTE, Ind., May 8.—Henry Jones, the slayer of four men, was executed in the northern prison yesterday morning. Jones went to his doom stoically. He even assisted the guards in adjusting the straps. When asked if he had anything to say before the black cap was drawn he shook his head, and, after a prayer, Deputy Warden Kinney pulled the trigger of the trap and Jones' body shot into space. The fall of six feet broke his neck, and 15 minutes after the drop the physicians pronounced him dead.

Jones shot another colored man at Indianapolis over a crap game and was sentenced for life. The principal witness against him was Edward Jones, also colored, who later was sent to prison. Edward Jones was seated directly in front of Henry Jones during religious services at the chapel a few months ago. The last named had stolen a caseknife at the dinner table and sharpened it to the keenness of a razor, and in the presence of several hundred convicts he stabbed Edward Jones to death. He was convicted of murder in the first degree and was sentenced to be hanged.

Jones confessed to having committed murders at Jacksonville, Fla., Savannah, Ga., Indianapolis and the one for which he was hanged. He was a desperate character, having made three attempts during imprisonment to kill guards and convicts.

Jones' remains were buried in the potters' field. His body was followed to the grave by one man, Chaplain Albright, who conducted brief religious services. No autopsy was made.

Miners Will Accept of a Reduction.

KNOXVILLE, May 8.—A special from Jellico says that the miners have about concluded that they will have to go to work under the reduction. All the other districts where reductions were made have accepted and begun work.

On account of the summer season when coal shipments will be light, the miners are at a disadvantage. They can not live without work so it is believed that when the conference is held Monday that the little difference will be all over.

Three Ribs Broken.

BEDFORD, Ind., May 8.—Mathias England, near the east county line, arrived here seeking surgical attention, with three ribs broken and other injuries, having been assaulted, as he claimed, by George W. Slaughter, a relative of his wife. He also alleges that the assault was unprovoked.

Fell Dead From His Chair.

KOKOMO, Ind., May 8.—The Rev. Aaron Silvers, the oldest pioneer church worker in the east end of this county, died very suddenly Thursday at the home of John Lamb, in Jerome. He was in apparently good health, and fell from his chair dead. He was 79 years old.

Still Cutting Down Tollgates.

EWING, Ky., May 8.—A gang of raiders, consisting of about 50 masked men, cut down the tollgate on the Maysville and Lexington turnpike last night at Bluelick Springs, Nicholas county.
